Take a look at the awesome decorations created for this year "circus" theme national.

Think of 27 pounds of black glitter, 25 pounds of white glitter and 4 gallons of Elmer's glue and you have just some of the supplies used by Jennifer and Stephen Jacobs to bring us the Greatest Dane Show on Earth decorations.
"I started working on them 3 1/2 years ago," said Jacobs, last time the division hosted she filled in at the last minute with only three months.

Stephen, her husband, cut out all of the figures from real wood after Jennifer designed them.

Then she took over, hand painting every single item you see, from the Top Twenty Center pieces to the Carousel dogs. The "Logo" Danes took two months to paint and decorate. Jacobs created all six Dane colors and highlighted each one with multiple colors of glitter.

As the project went on Jacobs moved her real Great Danes into the house while the decorations moved in and took over her 800 square foot kennel building.

"Eventually the pea gravel path from the kennel to the house twinkled with glitter the entire length," said Jacobs.

She created 60 logo Danes, 40 each Top Twenty Center pieces and Entertainment Night. Jacobs also created all of the outdoor Danes each engaged in a different Circus antic. Then there are the eight foot high Great Danes in all six colors with Joe Longo as the ring master at the main entrance of the Executive Inn. In case you missed it the Futurity Train is located at the show site.

Awards night decorations were created by Bruce Beilke out of aluminum based on Jacobs design.

"I used to love doing ceramics so all of the items are painted with ceramic paint because it gives you a wider spectrum to work with," said Jacobs.

Take the time to look at each of the pieces created with love and humor.

Jacobs wants to acknowledge Karen Ray, Ronnie Harmen, Susan Yotive, Lynda Moriarty, Joe Longo and the Hoosier Great Dane Club.

"Joe and Lynda have been awesome to work with," said Jacobs. "Joe gave me free license on what I wanted to do."

Look for some of the pieces to show up in the raffle room.

A side note-Two of the out door pieces have been stolen or "Removed." Their return would be appreciated.

Health Testing Continues

53— Great Danes are scheduled for Cardiac echos today and tomorrow. A few appointments may be available for walk-ins

Call Mary Ann Zanetos on her cell phone at 614-202-7198 for an appointment

THIS IS A TERRIFIC OPPORTUNITY to take a step towards knowing what's in your dog's heart literally. With DCM on the top three list of causes of the death this is a great chance at a wonderful price to increase your knowledge. Dr. Bill Tyrrell is a board certified cardiologist who is very familiar with our breed. The cost for the exam is $75 at most clinics the range is from $250 to $400.

One of those walk-in spots might have your name on it.
